

WESTERN ASSOCIATION for COLLEGE ADMISSION COUNSELING

OUR MEMBERSHIP

WACAC is an organization of leaders in college admission and an affiliate of the National Association of College Admission Counseling.

2,000

MEMBERS

COLLEGE FAIRS

Free to the public since 1972, the College Fair program allows students to interact with admission representatives from a wide range of postsecondary institutions to discuss course offerings, admission and financial aid requirements, and college life in general.

LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE

Trained members work with local and state Senate and Assembly members and committees to share our educational priorities, expertise, and personal stories.

WACAC OFFERS:

- Professional development opportunities for our members on the transition from high school to college.
- Access to research and resources for our members.

WACAC ADVOCATES FOR:

- Participation of traditionally underrepresented, underserved populations in postsecondary education and in our profession.
- Student rights in the college selection process.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Spring Conference

WACAC's annual signature event with workshops covering new ideas, best practices, and current issues around the college admission process.

Inclusion, Diversity, Equity and Access (IDEA) Conference

In conjunction with the annual conference, IDEA provides solutions for professionals serving underrepresented populations.

Share, Learn, and Connect

For counselors who work with high school and community college students transitioning to college. Held in:

- Bay Area
- Los Angeles East
- Los Angeles West
- San Diego
- Sacramento

Leadership Development Institute

A selective program that provides training and professional development to mid-level managers preparing them for leadership roles in the organization and profession.

District Directions

WACAC supports one public school district each year by providing comprehensive support and year-long professional development to its administrators and counselors on college and career readiness.

